Corrections have been made.

Regarding the website, please see following four links and pages that contain EIC info and the existing EIC Saturday openings PDF.

Where exactly do you want the new attached EIC PDFs linked from?

<http://www.dps.texas.gov>

Should I request they make any change to the slide in the middle?...Mobile Stations to Issue...? Mobile Stations and Counties to issue?

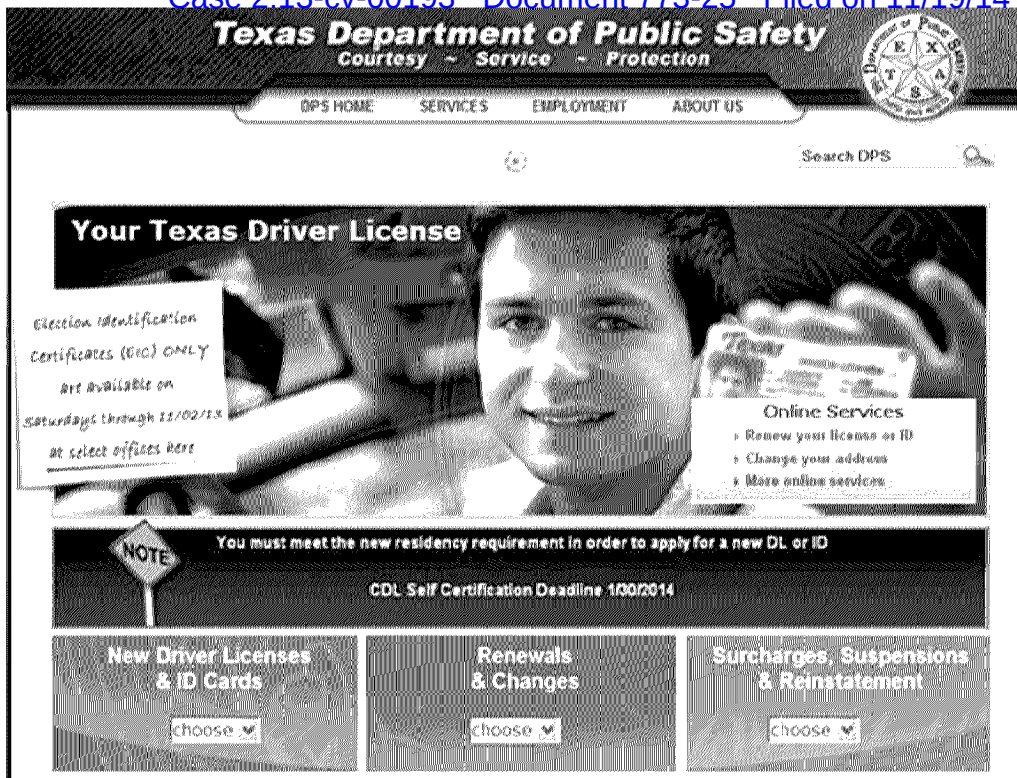

<http://www.txdps.state.tx.us/DriverLicense/>

Should we edit the post-it to include not only the link to the Saturday offices PDF, but also the new PDFs as well?

Should we add the link to the new PDFs here as well?

Texans can now obtain an EIC at:

- Any of the more than 220 Texas driver license offices across Texas during regular business hours;
- Select driver license offices on Saturdays from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. (EIC transactions only); and
- EIC mobile station locations (EIC transactions only).
- ADD THE NEW PDFs HERE?

Mobile Stations to Issue Election Identification Certificates Across Texas Beginning Oct. 1

HOUSTON – Texas Public Safety Commission Chair Cynthia Leon today joined Texas Secretary of State John Steen in announcing Election Identification Certificates (EIC) will be available at 25 EIC mobile stations, which will begin deploying across the state next week. These mobile stations, which will issue EICs only, are part of an ongoing effort to provide EICs to Texans in need of photo identification now required to vote in elections in Texas.

"Elections are always an exciting time for voters, communities and government. In partnership with the Secretary of State, DPS is taking extra measures to increase the convenience for those seeking to apply for an Election Identification Certificate," said Chair Leon. "Texans now have several different options to obtain an EIC if they don't already have the necessary photo identification to cast their vote."

EIC mobile stations will be deployed beginning Oct. 1 to various locations across the

Election Identification Certificate (EIC)

Español

Texas voters must show a photo ID to vote in elections in Texas, unless you are exempt (see "Exemptions" below).

If you do not have any of the following acceptable forms of ID, beginning June 26, 2013, you may apply for an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) at no charge. However, if you already have any of the following forms of ID, you are not eligible for an EIC:

- Texas driver license—unexpired or expired no longer than 60 days at the time of voting
- Texas personal identification card—unexpired or expired no longer than 60 days at the time of voting
- Texas concealed handgun license—unexpired or expired no longer than 60 days at the time of voting
- U.S. passport book or card—unexpired or expired no longer than 60 days at the time of voting

Election Identification Certificates (EIC) ONLY are available on Saturdays through 11/02/13 at select offices here

Everything else looks great. Once these edits are made, both documents are good to post.

Also, will you please send me the links once they're up, so I can add them to our press release for tomorrow?

Thanks again...excellent work on all of this, including the quick turnaround.

This format is great. I'll take a closer look in the morning for any minor tweaks, but yes, go ahead and move forward with filling in info using these formats.

Thanks again for your help, John.

Kat,

Attached are the proposed PDFs for the web that will list all 78 counties that are processing/issuing EICs. (37 County-run and 41 DPS-run)

Please provide suggestions and/or edits. I can complete these tomorrow.

Thanks,

John
